

Directions to Camp Deerhorn (From Chicago)

(about 6 hours)- Take I-94 to Milwaukee. Get on 894 going around Milwaukee's west side. Follow the signs to Fond du Lac and highway 41/45 North. When 41 and 45 split near Fond du Lac (Exit 59), stay on 41 (do not exit to 45). After going through Oshkosh, you will cross Lake Butte des Mortes. Take the next exit (Exit 120 – marked 10W to 45). Follow 10W approximately 16 miles to US45 and continue north approximately 110 miles on US45 to Highway 8 in Monico (after about 50 miles on US45, the route “jogs” west along WI-29 for about 2.5 miles, then continues north).

If you want to go into Rhinelander before coming to camp: Turn left or west on 8. Proceed to Highway 17 North and turn right or north. Stay on 17 North to County C East. The Rhinelander Ice arena is at this intersection. Turn right and proceed about 7 miles to Deerhorn Road. There is a large log sign on the right or south side of the highway. Turn right or south and proceed 2 miles through the Deerhorn gate into camp.

If you want to head directly to camp: Stay on 45 north past the intersection with Hwy 8 in Monico. (Highway 45 jogs east just a bit before heading back north) After the intersection with hwy 8, stay on 45 for about 6 miles. Make a left on County C. Proceed 6 miles to Deerhorn Rd. (Camp Deerhorn sign on left). Make a left and proceed 2 miles into camp.
