

A 160 page, hardcover book, depicting 75 years of Deerhorn history has been written and compiled by Blaine Broadbridge. In Old Deerhorn Hall is a collection of memories, stories and photographs from campers and counselors who spent their summers at Deerhorn. In chapters dedicated to each of the 8 decades of Deerhorn history, the memories of the Deerhorn experience ring out like the sound of the camp bell. From the Depression to the Millennium thousands of young men gained self confidence, friendship, kindness and sportsmanship skills from their Deerhorn summers. While the years pass, and names change, Deerhorn continues to be a boyhood adventure that builds memories for a lifetime.
